Weekly Dancing with Parkinson's Online Workshops

Mondays, 11 October - 6 December 2021

2 - 3:30pm via Zoom

Join Danielle Teale with vocalist Jaka Škapin for an expressive, moving and creative weekly dance workshop via Zoom. Using live dance and music, these collaborative classes create a community experience on screen that captures the essence of dancing in person. Exploring togetherness and empathy, online classes allow for individual communication and interpretation in your own home environment.

No dancing experience is necessary. Just the willingness to join in and have fun connecting with a group of like-minded members of the Parkinson's community. A number of additional special open workshops and events take place in-person throughout the autumn with Poplar Union and Ideas Store London.
